

WHAT DO YOU BRING TO THE TABLE?

FOOD POLICY ADVISOR

Poster made by: Kiritika Rana

Abra's Location:
British Columbia

Abra's Workplace:
FarmFolk, CityFolk, & Central Kootenay Food Policy Council

Abra's job location:
Remote

Season 2 - Episode 1

Paris Tarver Interviews
Abra Brynne

What is a Food Policy Advisor?

Dietitians who help plan food and nutrition programs.

What do Food Policy Advisor's do?

They study how policies made by the government impact groups of people.

Impact of a Food Policy Advisor?

A food policy advisor promotes sustainability in food systems, addresses food insecurity, supports economic development, and so much more.

Important Facts

Job needed in Canada? Yes
Do they need strong analytical skills? Yes

Average salary according to Indeed: 77,000 (depends on level of experience)

Who should consider this path?

An individual who is interested in food systems, sustainability, public health, and policy would be a great fit as a food policy advisor. You must have prior experience in public policy, agriculture, food science, environmental science, or nutrition.

Would do want to be a Food Policy Advisor?